IAYP Adventure Camp in Dharamshala (From 22 -24 September 2019)

182 Jindalites from classes IX to XII (Bronze and Silver Award Aspirants) along with 7 teacher escorts went to Snow Monk Camp Dharamshala for an adventure trip organized under the aegis of IAYP. The three-day trip incorporated activities such as river crossing, Mowgli walk, commando net, and flying fox along with an arduous trek of approximately 20 km at a height of about 7,000 feet.

In addition to the thrill of adventure, the delegation enjoyed the breath-taking beauty of the place with stargazing at night, being the most cherished memory for all participants.

IAYP “Special Service Meritorious Award” (held in Delhi on 9th July 2019)

IAYP award leaders Mr. Rupesh Kumar & Mr. Dinesh Kumar of Vidya Devi Jindal School, Hisar have attended the award ceremony organized by IAYP award foundation of India. They received the “Special Service Meritorious Certificate” from the IAYP award foundation as a token of recognition for their dedicated support towards the Award Programme. The ceremony was held at the India International Centre, New Delhi on 9th July. It was such a proud moment for VDJS teachers.

Manali Snow Trekking and Camping (From 12 - 18 MAY 2019)

In yet another significant breakthrough in the adventure trail of Vidya Devi Jindal School, Hisar 25 Award participants accompanied by three teachers Mr. Rupesh Kumar, Ms. Tannu and Ms. Veena undertook a trekking expedition from 13 to 18 May to Solang Valley as part of the adventurous journey section of the IAYP Award Programme.

The team enthusiastically trekked 42 kilometers to and fro in 4 days including 9 kilometers of snow trekking. They braved extreme weather conditions with the night temperatures at the campsite dipping to -9° Celsius. Even rain and mild hail couldn't dampen the spirit of the participants as they unfurled the school flag at Bakkar Thatch, the starting point of Beas Kund located at an altitude of 3400 meters. In addition to trekking, the participants engaged in rock climbing, rappelling, zip lining and river crossing. They even enjoyed a day of leisure at Manali's Mall Road.

IAYP Cycling Expedition (From 23-27 November-2018) VDJS Hisar to Chandigarh 350 Kms.

A team of five girls (Varnika Gupta, Vanshika Grewal, Aditi Chugh, Bhawna Jangra and Kritika Jindal) along with four members of the faculty (DOA, Ms Puja Pant, Mr. Rupesh Kumar, Ms Poonam Chauhan, and Mr. Abhishek Charag) undertook the maiden first Cycling Expedition in VDJS From School to Chandigarh from Friday, 23rd November to Tuesday 27th November. The team successfully covered a distance of 350 kms in five days.

The expedition aimed at giving a boost to the adventure activities and creating awareness about reducing the carbon footprint. It was a very new experience for all the students and in spite of facing a lot of hurdles. These girls have become role models for many who appreciated them during their expedition and even their family members.
