Stock Market & Career Opportunities - An Insider's Perspective

Today, an increasing number of students are considering a future in the financial market, and the stock market now includes not just share markets, but also commodity and currency markets. Foreign investors, as well as institutional investors, are actively invested in India through direct investments, Portfolio Management Schemes, Mutual Funds, and so on. Online trading and the dematerialization of securities have been the most important game changers. Come and join me in my session to gain an insider's perspective that will help you decide if this is the profession for you.

Session Date: April 10, 2021 (Saturday) at 5:00 pm

Venture for All was created by Dr Jack McGourty Founder and Director, VFA, Columbia Business School, NY. Over the past 15 years, he has been an active member of the University’s entrepreneurial community, establishing an undergraduate minor in entrepreneurship, teaching core and advanced courses in entrepreneurship.

Details:

VFA, Global Entrepreneurship and Leadership two week program

High School students learn the process of new venture creation in Columbia Business School's global initiative Venture For All which is modelled on Columbia's MBA course, Launch Your startup, an interactive project based program to foster entrepreneurship and innovation. Students come in with a business idea and through a vetted process take it to launch stage in just a few weeks!

Graduates move on to become a member of VFA, young entrepreneurs club and a TA position, depending on their engagement and understanding of the course.

Besides the completion certificate, their letter of recommendation can be uploaded on the common app as an external recommender.

Communicate through Theatre & Drama - Summer program 2021

Why Effective Communication Course?

Effective communication is about the four C's; clear, concise, consistent, and captivating communication. You can improve your communication with a plan, reflection, thought, and review. We work with the belief that these skills can be learned. It is not a talent but an acquired skill to be an effective communicator, who can connect and reach out to their audience.

This course will be immersive and interactive using drama-based methods of delivery. People who have slight artistic inclination should also be a part of this program as it will be delivered through art forms

What Will You Learn?

Module #1: Interactivity and Personal Presence

This module works with the ideas of losing inhibitions and quick and creative thinking to be an impactful communicator.

Module #2: Verbal and Non-Verbal Communication

This module will help you open the voice and body to get your audience to engage with you.

Module #3: Storytelling and Presentation Skills

This module will make sure you can present your story - expressively and confidently.

Ivy Early Entrepreneur program is more than learning to start your business. It's creating a growth-oriented mindset and skill. Students leave the program having completed a business model canvas, competitive analysis, financial model, minimum viable product, and a pitch deck.

Our mentors come from top Ivy League colleges that run successful businesses (mentors details mentioned below). These experts serve as coaches and mentors guiding students through the processes of developing a business concept.

On successfully completing the workshop, internship opportunities will be extended to all the students within our partner firms and with most of the mentors teaching the program. You will be provided with a certificate of participation by The Big Red Group. This certificate can be used for your college portfolio.

Who Is It For?

This workshop is for highly motivated high schoolers from grade 8 - 12 who want to start and run their own business or get a high position in the corporate world. This is an intense workshop that dives deep into the business/corporate world.
