WRITE UP

On 10th of September, Ketki Balyan, from the batch of 2018, interacted with the students of Economics from Grade 12th. She is currently pursuing her master's degree in Economics from University of Bologna. The interaction was one of its kind, with students drawing inspiration from her journey from VDJS to one of the best universities in the World. She emphasised on the importance of self-awareness and integrity and exploring the plethora of options that all students get. Consequently, tapping into their potentials, so that their interests and talents coincide. As a much-awaited relief to the anxious student body of Grade 12th, she reassured the students that it is okay to not know one's passions at this point of time, but it is important to always be faithful and true to oneself.
