2023-24

Our Founding Father
Late Shri O P Jindal
1930 - 2005

Our Patron
Smt Savitri Devi Jindal

Lord, the giver of all good things,
we place before you our humble offering,
'Akanksha' - the expression of our aspirations,
thoughts and emotions. Bless our efforts, inspire the minds and warm the hearts of those who read these pages.
May this step of ours take us to greater heights of enlightened progress.

A Mother Onto Us

It is our faith that in her demise,
our patron
Late Smt Vidya Devi Jindal truly emerged
From being an individual into an institution.
It is now our duty as her admirers
And beneficiaries,
To ensure, that her silent dreams
Acquire a vibrant voice
And that her own thirst for love and
Justice grows into an insatiable hunger
In all young hearts,
And renew and resurrect this institution
Into an embodiment of her own spirit
And that her own little lamp of knowledge
Flares into a raging fire, all consuming
an everlasting source of learning
And generations of enquiring minds.
We indeed, owe an outstanding institution
To her refreshing and refulgent memory.

Editor's Message

She told her parents to wait for her at the reception. Her belongings from the hostel had already been handed over to them. They were wondering, what else was still left? However, she was looking desperately for her teachers, people before whom she had broken down, she had violated the rules and also she had confined to them her most vague fears, insecurities, anger, people with whom she shared those accolades, moments of triumphs in the sports field, the joy of commendable performance in exams, that final stroke of her masterpiece in the Arts Department and what not... Practically, it was over, it was the last day of wearing her school uniform, the school years were done, whatever she had to learn and take away from her teachers was done, Class XII Board Exams were done and yet she was not done. With her throat flooded with bubbles of emotions, she met her teachers, her dorm parents, House Mistress, held their hands, hugged a few, with rills of tears rolling down, told them how much they mattered all these years, how one compliment by them on one of those days metamorphosed her into a better person, how she learned to be soft and yet firm from them, how she was inspired by the single focus and discipline of one of the educators with whom she had hardly conversed.

The staff was humbled with gratitude for the almighty, as what they witnessed was a fine soul who was nurtured by them on campus day after day. One more time the House Mistress received a call from her parents who were waiting for her at the reception. She finally left the premises, and as she walked towards the Main Gate, she looked back endless times, and with every turn, she reflected how full she was now, full of confidence, of resilience to take challenges head-on, of fundamentals that would guard her against the dark pits and humility to be open to new learnings.

Editor's Message

Yes, every lesson, every event, competition, gathering and for that matter, the twenty-four hours at VDJS for a Jindalite is a bower of evolution, where she blooms into a fine human being and Akanksha 2023-24 presents a special reel of promising hues of life, of that evolution, of that metamorphosis. Under the tutelage of the Principal, Ms Naina Dhillon, the magazine was beautifully crafted, with the Publication Team diligently refining and polishing it to create a remarkable Yearbook that can be watched, read and shared endless times without a technical snag.

Chairperson's Message

Heartiest congratulations to the Team VDJS for successfully churning out another visual testimony, Akanksha 2023-24, of the relentless endeavours of Jindalites aiming to educate young learners for scaling new heights with their seasoned potentials and for the betterment of the community they are rooted in.

Socrates once said, "I cannot teach anybody anything. I can only make them think."

The school years are called the formative years of life, years that are believed to be preparing for College years of higher education, of specialisation. And this is the notion most people have. Here arrives the need to halt and ponder the question- is it only a preparation for college years? Surely if we look deep into Socrates' belief, he asserted that school education is not preparation for college life, it is life itself, a life wherein students are able to think and decipher the progress and regression, where they are able to think, ideate and take informed decisions shaped by the chisel of wisdom and the hammer of morality.

Certainly, the goal of education is a better life not just for oneself, but also for the community. VDJS is a mini society of education, that is committed to supporting and working for the welfare of its people. It has always prioritised the safety, health, and emotional quotient of Jindalites along with academics. And with numerous faculty development programmes, the school has ensured a 360-degree development- development of students as well as the staff.

As only change is constant, so is the flow of VDJS. Over the years, the school has witnessed changes in terms of teaching practices, curriculum, IT empowerment and other infrastructural changes, however, it is also witnessing a gradual change in widening its reach to holistic life. When big talks about globalisation, and sustainable development dominate esteemed conferences and summits nationally and internationally, the school is already working meticulously to offer the best pedagogical practices that lay a roadmap for a sustainable life for its proteges.

Principal's Message

“Teaching is more than imparting knowledge. It is an inspiring change. Learning is more than absorbing facts; it is acquiring understanding.”

- William Arthur Ward

The words of William Arthur Ward more than sum up the ethos of education here at VDJS. The school curriculum centers around providing students a holistic education, wherein the focus is not just about gaining excellent scores and prestigious placements, but in fact to bring up good, decent human beings. This I believe is accomplished here due to varied activities and an exciting and engaging curriculum.

Besides the plethora of events, we encourage our students to participate in social service projects, so that they develop qualities of empathy and compassion.

We at VDJS, strive to provide our students the best that the world has to offer, while also keeping them safe and secure. Students are given international exposure by way of activities like the Round Square Conference and service projects. Adventure activities inculcate a love for environment and nature.

As you leaf through the pages of Akanksha, you will get a detailed insight into the varied opportunities that our girls are provided. These opportunities help our students to blossom into caring and compassionate human beings, while also being highly motivated and successful adults.

To sum up what we strive for here at VDJS, I can think of nothing better than the words of Rudyard Kipling's IF:

“If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with kings—nor lose the common touch;
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you;
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run—
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And—which is more—you'll be a Man, my son!

I would like to congratulate the Editorial team for their wonderful work. Long and exhausting hours have resulted in a beautiful magazine, one that will be treasured by one and all. A treasure trove of memories that will fill the reader with joy and happiness.

Empowering Students through Innovative Pedagogy

VDJS is dedicated to pedagogical advancement, aligning with NEP 2020 and addressing students' evolving needs. Continuous refinement ensures relevance and future readiness. Through innovative approaches, holistic development is fostered, equipping students with vital skills and knowledge for an ever-changing world.

Introduction of X-SEED Curriculum

The introduction of the X-SEED curriculum for classes IV to VIII exemplifies the commitment to nurture holistic growth and essential skill acquisition. This curriculum encourages students to explore beyond textbooks, offering hands-on experience in solving value-based and practical problems. Application practice workbooks complement traditional textbooks, and assessments prioritise skills alongside concepts. Emphasis is placed on cultivating critical thinking, problem-solving abilities, and creativity, laying the foundation for lifelong learning and meaningful societal participation. Integration of technology and multimedia resources enriches learning experiences, fostering interactive and collaborative learning opportunities.

Exceed

Exceed Class-Enactment of the role play

The school's management, led by the Principal Ms Naina Dhillon, Administrator Mr Nikhil Rudra, Dean of Academics Ms Kamalika Bhowmick, and XSEED Leader Ms Shriya Bhalla, actively participated in various Management Training Programmes to deepen their understanding and implement the curriculum effectively in the Middle School. Regular teacher training sessions and live demos by XSEED resource people ensure ongoing support and development.

Complementing the XSEED Curriculum is the XSEED SuperTeacher App, a comprehensive tool equipped with content and pedagogy to facilitate effective teaching and preparation.

Introduction of New Skill Subjects

Furthermore, the introduction of new skill subjects such as Data Science, Web Design, Textile Design, and Knowledge, Traditions, and Practices of India for Classes IX and XI enhances practical application, and career readiness, and diversifies learning. These additions aim to foster skill development, increase student engagement, prepare for the future, and promote innovation among students.

SKILL COURSE- TEXTILE DESIGNING

Atal Tinkering Lab

The school is consistent in its effort to raise the young learners into a clan of ground-breaking pioneers who, with the confluence of curiosity, creativity, and imagination, drive home skills such as design mindset, computational thinking, adaptive learning, and many more. An Inter-House Scratch Competition was piloted wherein children of Classes VI-VIII created stories, chase games, and quizzes using the Scratch Platform. ATL field trip to Stemrobo elucidated Jindalites about AI-based projects, 3D printing, and Project-based learning.

A workshop on ATL Marathon - a flagship innovation challenge under Atal Innovation Mission was organised to motivate students to enhance their participation in the upcoming national competition with the theme, 'India's G20 Presidency' and how to systemise their projects. Students also made robots for the Annual Day Exhibition. The ATL classes echo with the intensive learning of soft skills, Scratch, Tinkercad, Sensors, QR Code App, Canva, and Pixton.

INVESTITURE CEREMONY

Leadership is the ability to turn a vision into a reality and to lead with humility, clarity and courage. Responsibility inculcates all this and more in an individual. The 24th of July, 2023 saw the transfer of responsibility and trust as the newly elected leaders of the school and representatives of the student body pledged to perform their duties and work for the welfare of the institution fearlessly and without favour.

From Class Representatives and Sports Captains to Round Square and IAYP representatives and the Student Council, all were conferred with badges, sashes and responsibility. Excitement and pride could be felt buzzing in the auditorium as the students vowed to fulfill their duties to their respective houses. The Principal, Ms. Naina Dhillon, heartily congratulated the Prefectorial Board and wished them a successful tenure.

The Vice Prefectorial Board was appointed on October 03, 2023, by the Principal.

JINDAL ART FESTIVAL

The school's much-awaited event encapsulates the extraordinary talent, spirit and enthusiasm of fellow students. The 30th Jindal Art Festival, an All India Public Schools Cultural Festival of art, music, dance and literary skills, was inaugurated on 7th August at Vidya Devi Jindal School to commemorate the birth anniversary of our founding father, Sri. O.P. Jindal Ji, a towering figure in the realms of Indian industry and entrepreneurship, fondly called 'Bauji'.

The two-day festival was inaugurated by the Chief Guest, Dr. Shratapura Thankura Rao, Associate Professor at the Indian Institute of Technology, Kanpur, along with other notable dignitaries. The auditorium beamed of 154 participants, belonging to 8 different schools across the country. The Chief Guest inaugurated VDJS' weekly publications edition, the 'VDJS Gazette' - a new addition to VDJS Publications, as the festival witnessed the artistic strokes of students at a medley of competitions. The closing of the festival was bestowed with the sacrosanct presence of Ms Trina Chatterjee, an alumna of Shanti Niketan and a Child Protection Officer who has been a crusader of Visual Arts for three decades, as the Chief Guest. The valedictory ceremony ushered in endless cheers as the overall winner of the festival, Emerald Heights International School, Indore, was felicitated with its well-deserved trophy along with other winners.

The programme reflected a testament to the celebration of cultural diversity through art and remained successful in bringing diverse communities together, as it does, year after year.

ANNUAL SPORTS DAY

Sports are an intrinsic part of Jindalites' life and they leave no stone unturned to bring out the best of the sportsperson in them. The Sports Day was organised at VDJS with great zest and high spirits. The school welcomed the Chief Guest, Brigadier S. Rajeev and his wife Mrs. Sindhu Rajeev, and other distinguished guests with immense pleasure. The Annual Sports meet witnessed the awe-striking drill by the school's Taekwondo Team, including the breaking of wooden boards, tiles, and tubelights. The electric 'Umbrella Drill', that incredibly exhibited harmony and unity, left everyone spellbound.

The elaborate formations and advanced asanas of the young ‘Yogis’ of the school indeed astonished the audience. The day saw a marvellous showcasing of the innate flair Jindalites possess and their fervour to bring forth the finest in themselves.

ANNUAL DAY CELEBRATION

A celebration of the diverse talents, and unwavering commitment and spirit that the Jindalites carry, the Annual Day is a much-awaited event showcasing the session's achievements and ensuring a memorable and entertaining event wrapping the year. The 37th Annual Day was celebrated at VDJS on the 9th of November 2023 with Mr Lobsang Phunstok- a former Buddhist monk and an internationally recognised figure, being this year's distinguished Chief Guest, who graced the event along with other honourable dignitaries. The annual extravaganza commenced with the inauguration of the Art and Science Exhibition by the Chief Guest and continued with the blessings of the divine Saraswati Vandana. May it be the School Orchestra's spectacular instrumental performance or the dance team's awe-inspiring dances, all events combined with the constant efforts of the Jindal community, made the event indelible. The Annual Day culminated in a grand finale as the achievers of the session 2023-24 were felicitated recognition and awarded in the Prize-Giving Ceremony making the parents proud and overjoyed who witnessed the spectacle along with the entire VDJS staff, students and the distinguished dignitaries.

The Exhibitions...

Fine Arts Exhibition

Practice does lead to perfection, as evidenced at the Fine Arts exhibition, where students showcased vibrant canvases across the walls. Their intricate details, crafted with black markers on wooden bases, captivated the audience. Jindalites displayed their creative dexterity at Resin Art as they created small, and clear patterns on frames and transparent clocks. The worn-out charcoal pencils and empty paint bottles are the testimony of dedication by the Jindalites that paid off as every detail on display was a piece of nuanced perfection, an evidence of their tireless practice.

Crochet Exhibition

How a simple yarn can be turned into a mesmerising tapestry of intricate patterns is an approach only a crocheter seems to understand! The Annual Day exhibition featured an array of stunning pieces made by Jindalites. The miscellany of adorable stuffed toys, cosy muffers, tote bags, and home decor such as mats and coasters were put up on display and the students were ready with their wools and hooks to show a glimpse of their ardent passion. From ideation to creation, Jindalites are entitled for the glory, hard won with diligence and ingenuity.

Eco Tales Exhibition

Opportunities to spread ecological awareness are never overlooked by the Jindalites. This exhibition was a tribute solely to the conservation of the environment. Students displayed their talents in the forms of paper bags and lamps made of old waste paper, Japanese art of kokedama, planters from plastic bottles and many others. The incharges explained the projects to guests and earned admiration for their ardent efforts to save Mother Nature.

Sculpture Exhibition

Creativity takes perseverance hues in faith— unicycling cardboards, the students showcased their creativity by creating tables, shelves and stands. The efforts paid off when the clay models were unveiled to the guests who were awestruck every time they came across a sculpture. The diligent team showcased their skills by creating diyas live and earned applause from the guests.

Apparel Exhibition

Students showcased their handicraft skill using vibrant threads and designs. The unique creations comprised dining mat, dinner runner, table runner, coasters, dupattas, traditional pidha with colourful weaving, bookmarks, embroidered slippers, curtain ties, embroidered jeans, embroidered shirts, tops and t-shirts, and collar designs fostering connections that went beyond geographical and cultural boundaries.

Batik & Handicraft Exhibition

Perhaps nothing could be paralleled to the delightful fusion of art and culture that the Batik and Handicraft exhibition set forth. The students crafted multiple articles, including wall hangings, Designer Tray, Aesthetic Tea Coasters and many more. From the intricate textiles to the ethnic multipurpose boxes, every element told a unique story. Each batik scarf, shirt, wall hanging, and curtain earned admiration and applause. The colourful and intriguing display left a lasting impression on all the visitors.

Science Exhibition

The Science exhibition served as a platform for students to showcase their scientific acumen and talent of thinking out of the box through innovative models. The exhibits ranged from sustainable solutions like chalk production using Plaster of Paris statue residue to intricate representations of biological processes such as Drip Irrigation, a model of the Heart, and demonstrations of Artificial Womb, working models of Contraction and Relaxation of muscles, Atomic Structure, Periodic Table, Water Cycle, DNA, Aeroponics, Household Circuits, Series and Parallel Connections, Water Pump, Microscope, Models related to Newton's Law of Motion, Simple Machines and the Concept of Light. The students not only showcased their talents but also inspired curiosity and awareness among their peers and visitors.

ATL Exhibition

Innovation and tinkering were at their zenith at the ATL exhibition as Jindalites exhibited a diverse array of working models, each designed to solve real-world problems. From the automatic water tank to the 3-D printed models, the exhibition put forth the ingenuity and inventiveness of the students and highlighted their creativity and originality. The broad range of functional models further included Robotic Football, Electric Cranes, Automated Toll Plaza, Line follower and Obstacle Detector and a Prototype Rover of ISRO's Lunar Mission, i.e, the Chandrayaan. All the models were applauded by the visitors.

ANNUAL ALUMNI MEET

The 30th Annual Alumni Meet served as a bridge between the past and the future, connecting generations of graduates and inspiring them to carry forth the values instilled in them during their sojourn at VDJS. The rendezvous was a nostalgic and joyous occasion, as 80 alumni and 8 alumnae teachers relived their fond memories in VDJS during the friendly Hockey and Volleyball matches held between the old vs the new.

The cultural programme in the auditorium was highly appreciated by the guests of the evening and a session with the Principal, Ms Naina Dhillon, led to the strengthening of the alumnae base' at VDJS and also shaping of their imperative role as a pool of resources for guidance and career counselling for the upcoming Jindalites.

GRADUATION CEREMONY

As the outgoing batch stepped out of the school, beginning a new chapter of their life, December 15 marked a highlight in their journey as VDJS celebrated the incredible academic journey of the batch of 2023-24 at their Graduation Ceremony. The proud moment was witnessed by the parents, as every Jindalite was called upon the stage to receive a personalised citation in recognition of their achievements and merits along with the blessings of Saraswati Ji as a souvenir. The Principal, Ms Naina Dhillon, congratulated the batch, proud to be called 'Mavericks', for their successful completion of school years and the various accomplishments the students had marked out along the way.

The event was embellished with a couple of performances and ended with a tranquillising hymn sung by the school choir. The girls were left with a culmination of nostalgia, pride, and a sense of anticipation and excitement to move on and continue with their wonderful journey. Best wishes from the entire VDJS family!

THE 38TH ANNUAL PRIZE GIVING CEREMONY

The 38th Annual Prize Giving Ceremony, held on May 17, 2024, transcended conventional boundaries of human capacities, revealing the remarkable potential of Jindalites' persistent endeavour. The Chief Guest, Mr. Rashid Sharfuddin, Headmaster of Selaqui International School, Dehradun, and a trailblazer in Model United Nations in India, graced the occasion with his distinguished presence as the Chief Guest. The high achievers were felicitated by Mr. Rashid Sharfuddin with books, precious pearls of wisdom, and a profound source of inspiration, encouraging Jindalites to surpass established records and embrace a bold vision of progress.

House Mistress Message

Dear Girls

As the House Mistress, I have had the profound privilege to witness first-hand the determination and passion that has radiated from each one of the Sarojinites as she has gone about engaging herself in various activities and events throughout the year. Their commitment to excellence, support for one another, and unwavering spirit truly embody the essence of our school's values.

As another academic year draws to a close and each one of us takes another step towards our life's goals, I would like you to remember that life's journey is about embracing challenges, discovering your strengths, and making your dreams a reality. So, continue to dream fearlessly and strive relentlessly towards your aspirations.

Ms P.K. Gill
HOUSE MISTRESS

House Prefect Message

My journey here in Sarojini House is something that I will cherish forever, not only because it is one of the most memorable times of my student life, but also because the byproduct of all my memories, experiences, learnings, and reflections make me the person I am today. May it be the able guidance of Gill Ma'am, or the fond affection of the rest of the pastoral staff, it is all that I have experienced being a fellow Sarojinite. This house has given me support during challenging times, and the shared laughter in moments of joy created bonds that will last a lifetime.

Nitisha Daruka, HOUSE PREFECT

Reflections

I made the best memories in Sarojini House. The House Mistress, the Dorm Parents and the Sahayikas of the house were very supportive. They never let me feel that I am away from my home. I was blessed that I got Sarojini House. It made my time in VDJS easy and fun. I made a lot of good memories.

Reflections

Kasturba House is the best! Even though I'm in one of the junior most classes of the school, my House Mistress, Dorm Parents, and Prefects have always supported me to stand out among my classmates. Every achievement of our house fills me with happiness and pride as a Kasturbian. Thank you, my dear house, for all the support you've given me.

Tanvi Bansal - V

House Mistress Message

The academic session of 2023-24 was truly exhilarating, as it provided a unique opportunity to navigate daily challenges independently, building crucial life skills and resilience. Working with children was remarkably fulfilling, enabling me to contribute to their growth, development, and well-being. It also gave an opportunity to witness their unique personalities, talents, and perspectives. The work of a House Mistress goes beyond the professional realm, often involving a genuine connection and investment in the lives of the children you interact with. Being in the company of Kasturbians was incredibly rewarding as girls headed for transformative experiences, fostering independence, a sense of community, positive relationships, and self-reliance.

Reflections

It's just been five years, yet the memories, joys and tears shared seem like a million! I vividly remember my first week in Kasturba House as an extremely introverted personality and today I stand strong as a human being. Through celebrations and challenges, I have felt the collective heartbeat of growth and resilience with the friendships built, the challenges faced and the memories woven together. I have seen Kasturbians evolve and mould into young independent girls no matter how harsh the wave is, I am sure Kasturbians are ready for it. Forever grateful for the roller coaster journey.

House Mistress Message

Opening my journal of memories, I stumbled across 3rd of July 2023. The bright, jubilant day stays as fresh as a morning dewy rose; when I placed my feet inside Savitri House, the symbol of lasting loyalty. Penning this down, I can proudly say that it was the best decision to stay with my stack of enthusiasm which always had my back. Through records of my memory, a collection takes me back to exactly a year ago, when, with shaky breath, I became familiar with my Savitrians

A laugh escapes through my lips, as I remember it. A year full of bitter-sweet experiences has given me an assurance of the team- spirit, valour, smart- work and of course, loyalty that the girls of Savitri carry ethereally and poise with them and these jewels of excellence open their bank account in the house depositing accolades after accolades. From bagging the Overall Sports Trophy to the representation at the Nationals, the girls of Savitri make sure that the spirit of Savitri is never let down. With this elegance in the mastery of life I can, with my lips stretched wide, and cheeks puffed up, say that WE BLEED BLUE.

Ms Rupal Asati, House Mistress

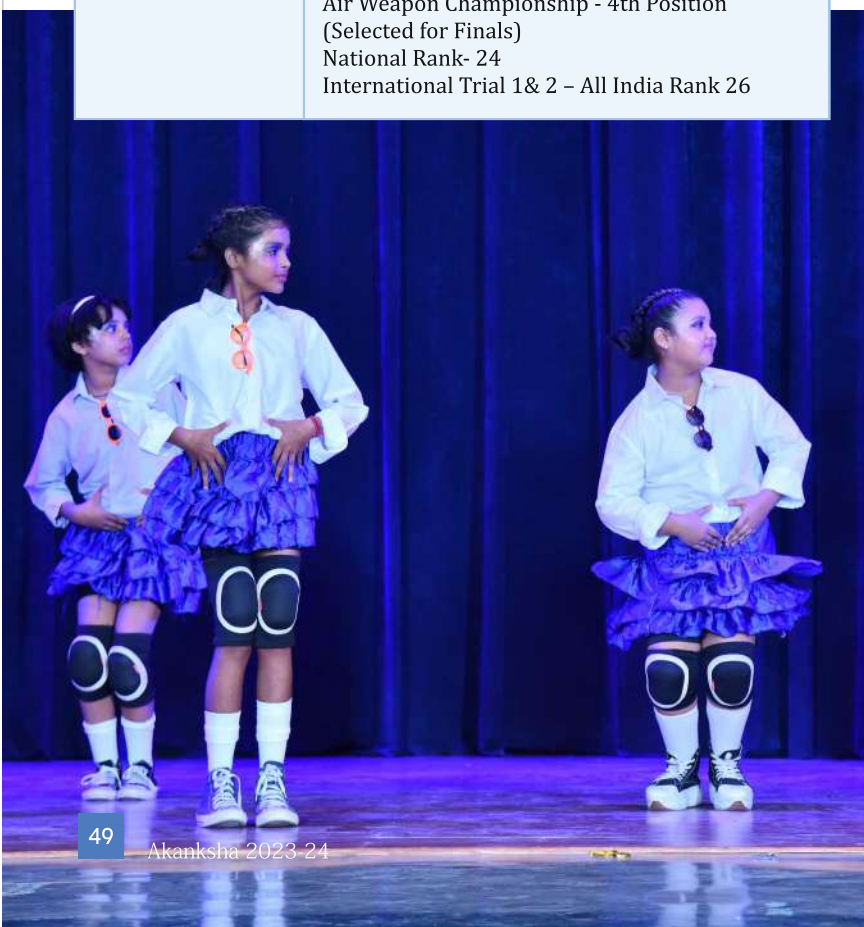

Reflections

One of the most profound aspects of serving as a House Prefect is the opportunity to cultivate a sense of unity and belonging among our loyal Savitrians. Whether through organising house events, fostering camaraderie among peers, or offering support to those in need, I have seen Savitrians upholding the values of inclusivity and compassion that define our house ethos. Moreover, our success in sports extends beyond mere victories; it is a testament to the collective strength and unity of our house community. Through teamwork, mutual support, and camaraderie, our players have forged bonds that transcend the boundaries of the playing field, fostering a sense of belonging and pride that unites us all.

Arushi Godara – XII, House Prefect

Like we say 'we bleed blue', there is nothing truer than that as in every soul there is the house spirit reflecting within themselves. Savitri House has helped me a lot to enhance my skills and overcome my setbacks. I appreciate the efforts of the house and I'll always cherish it and stand by it. At last, I would end by saying, "There is nothing I would not do for those who really are my friends and my family."

House Mistress Message

Witnessing the unwavering spirit and achievements of our house members has been a source of immense pride. Together, we've created a nurturing space where every individual thrives academically, socially, and personally. The collaborative efforts and resilience exhibited by our students continue to inspire me. Let us carry forward this spirit of unity and excellence as we embark on new endeavours.

Reflections

Reflecting on my time in Laxmibai house, I am filled with gratitude for the bonds formed, the challenges overcome, and the personal growth experienced. Serving as a member of this house has instilled in me a sense of belonging and shared purpose. Through both victories and ordeals, the house has become a second home, a place where I've learned, grown, and forged bonds that will undoubtedly last a lifetime.

Khushi Jain -XII

Reflecting on the house's journey brings a profound sense of pride and nostalgia. Witnessing the growth, achievements, and camaraderie within our house has been a privilege. The bonds forged with fellow housemates, the traditions upheld, and the legacy we continue to build collectively make our house a unique and cherished part of VDJS. As I prepare to transition, I carry with me the memories and lessons I had in Laxmibai House.

VIDYA DEVI JINDAL SCHOOL –

The Champion of All India IPSC Pre-Nehru Cup Hockey Tournament 2023-24 !!

VDJS hosted the prestigious All-India IPSC Pre-Nehru Cup Hockey U-17 Girls Tournament 2023-24. It was an unforgettable and breathtaking battle among the seven renowned IPSC schools of the country. The eminent mountaineer and the conqueror of Mt. Everest and Mt. Lhotse, Ms Meenu Devi, and Ms Priya Malik, the Gold Medallist at the 2023 U-20 World Wrestling Championship, Jordan, graced the occasion as the Chief Guest for the opening and the closing ceremony. The presence of the teams along with their winning spirits had created a zealous aura around the campus. They experienced a series of victories that served as stepping stones, as well as defeats that provided valuable lessons for improving their future performance.

The Principal, Ms Naina Dhillon, and the Chief Guest, Ms Priya Malik felicitated the participants and IPSC officials with mementos and certificates. Cheers and claps skyrocketed as YPS, Patiala was declared 2nd Runner-up, PPS Nabha was declared the 1st Runner-up and VDJS was declared the champion of All India IPSC Hockey Girls' U-17 Tournament, 2023-24. HOCKEY

From the sound of the whistle to the banging of the goalpost when you score a goal, Jindalites do not miss a beat. Being a hockey player has its pros and cons like saving yourself from bumping into the goalkeeper or having a whole field just to yourself. VDJS Hockey Team has learned how to be modest after every win and how to be calm after every lost match. With bruised muscles, the team has performed as a very competitive opponent, who is always working to better itself and perform with stealth for every opportunity that knocks their sticks.

Sr. Best Player

It's nostalgic to experience the aura of the game again after a gap of 3 years. I pushed my limits and reached my peak performance which seemed unachievable. In just a few months, my team and I got the opportunity to showcase our perseverance. I still relish the feeling of scoring a goal in those last seconds of the game and the win still gives me goosebumps but all this wouldn't have happened without my coach keeping my back all the time, I am grateful for all the opportunities I've got and I'll work hard for more.

Tanishka Pannu
National Player

For me Hockey isn't just a game; it's a medium that teaches you discipline, perseverance, and teamwork like no other sport can. Whether you're a player striving to improve your skills or a fan cheering from the stands, there's an undeniable sense of belonging within the Hockey Team. What I cherish the most about Hockey is its ability to instill values that extend beyond the sport itself.

SHOOTING

A perfect shot takes weeks, months and years of practice to achieve it. At the pinnacle of their journey, stands the dream shooters see the day they play their first match. A 1 mm mistake can cost a shooter their entire match, striving for that 10.9, the Jindalites perfect their stance with a tranquil mind and only a perfect score in their mind with an exemplary stance, aligning the back side and front side, they shoot an exquisite shot. Their confidence is fueled by the belief that their weapon and skills will never betray them and that leads to the feeling of satisfaction upon scoring a 10.9.

Shreya Agrawal (Best Player- Sr. Rifle, International Trials- 24th Rank, Youth Women)

I chose shooting as my sport purely out of interest, a decision I've never regretted. Over the past three years, my journey has taken me through various competitions, from Pre-States to International Trials and many more. It has been a journey fueled by determination and passion. The companionship of my fellow shooters, etched in my soul, and the memories of our shared experiences have been invaluable. Reflecting on this journey fills me with gratitude for the opportunities it has presented, shaping not just my skills but also my character.

Nasreen Kaur (International Trials-Rifle Shooter)

FOOTBALL

The dedication and rigorous practice sessions of the Footballers of VDJ's have been reflected in the shiny medals and the victorious trophies at IPSC's, CBSE's as well as in States. The team grabs every single opportunity to show their dedication to win. It has always been about respect and humility along with aggression and the spirit to achieve. The players of the soccer team even appeared for the club trials and gave tough competition in Reliance Tournaments. The consistent performance of the soccer team led to the selection in CBSE Nationals for the second consecutive year. The year brought a lot of victories that would have been impossible without effective training sessions and the will to play the sport.

Srinidhi
National Player

Football, for me, is a lifelong passion that has shaped my character and defined my journey. From the early mornings spent practicing drills to the exhilarating moments of game day, football has been my constant companion. Beyond the physical aspect, football has also provided me with a sense of community and belonging. The bonds formed with my teammates and coach are some of the strongest I've ever experienced. Football isn't just a game to me, it's a way of life that I am forever grateful for.

Shivanshi
National Player

Football transcends the boundaries of a mere game. In the field of play, we learn not only to chase a ball but to chase our aspirations with unwavering determination. Through football, I tend to discover the beauty of solidarity, the joy of shared victories, and the resilience to rise again after every fall. Football teaches us that success is not measured solely by goals scored but by the character forged through adversity. It reminds us that no challenge is insurmountable when faced together as a team.

VOLLEYBALL

For the Volleyball players of VDJS, the ball is the weapon and the court is their battlefield. The consistency of regular practice is their first priority. For Jindalites, every point is a testament to the exemplary communication and coordination among team members as they embrace the court, feel the rhythm, and let the love for the game drive their every move.

Khelo India Youth Game 2023-24

Nia Rudra gave a commendable performance as the ‘Counter Attacker’.

Volleyball means more than just a sport to me; It has been a journey of learning and unforgettable moments. Whether winning or losing, everytime I step onto the court, I grow a little more. With hard work and teamwork, I have not only succeeded but also learned valuable lessons that will stay with me forever.

SWIMMING

High or low tides, life is all about making strides. The swimmers of VDJS enter the pool with their hearts thumping with excitement, midway in the water their lungs gasp for air and they come out glistening with triumph. How an extra gasp of air or a millisecond can change everything is a fact they are well acquainted with! The exemplary performance of Jindalites witnessed in the session of 2023-24 was achieved by endless hours and miles of training despite the chilly mornings and stormy evenings.

Taekwondo started as a hobby, but it has become an integral part of my life for the last 8 years. The Taekwondo mat is the only place where I feel at peace and can be myself. Early mornings and late-night practices have never felt like a task, but an opportunity to be better. Taekwondo is my sport and part of my personality. I'm grateful to my coach and my team for being at my side through thick and thin.

BADMINTON

Jindalites' smashes aren't accidental, it takes a lot of blood, sweat and tears, a lot of practice with planning, manoeuvring the racquet at different angles, and focusing on the opponents' moves. They say 'the person who plays badminton takes the best decision' and the Jindalites showcase that beautifully. The girls master the strength and control with such elegance that their smashes sound like music to one's ear. Their hard work and dedication have claimed great heights.

TABLE TENNIS

In the swift flick of wrists and rhythmic ball bounces, Jindalites exhibit agility, precision, and unwavering determination, striving to outmatch each other. Amidst the clamour of the other sports, table tennis shines with its blend of skill and tactics. Despite its recent introduction, it gained popularity among students, evidenced by the resounding echoes of the paddle clashes in the auditorium. The girls showcase their best performances, embodying the true essence of the sport.

SCHOOL BAND

The School Band showcases musical excellence and passion. The band also adds a touch of grace and rhythm to school events and celebrations, elevating the opening ceremonies with their music. For them, music is a meditative journey; they find unity in the melodies of bagpipes and the rhythm of side drums, marching proudly to the beats of the tenor drum. Their dedication to music resonates in every performance, reflecting our commitment and harmony.

Within the expansive realm of Round Square, students of VDJS have found an augmented platform for exploration, collaboration, and growth. From national and international conferences to academic projects, exchanges, and social services, their involvement spans diverse arenas. This multifaceted engagement has not only nurtured a deep-seated awareness of global citizenship but has also empowered them to articulate their views within the democratic ethos of tolerance and acceptance.

Empowering Community and Students through Service:

The VDJS Ladakh Service Project 2023

In the serene and yet challenging terrain of Ladakh, amidst towering mountains and clear skies, the VDJS Ladakh Service Project 2023 unfolded with a resounding theme: "Dream, Dare, Deliver." This initiative, held from August 13th to 20th, 2023, was inaugurated by Mr Tsering Namgyal, the esteemed Lower Leh Councillor, highlighting community support. The project epitomised the spirit of service and holistic growth for students from four prestigious schools: The Doon School, Dehradun; All Saints College, Nainital; Vivek High School, Chandigarh, and Vidya Devi Jindal School, Hisar.

A total of 23 students and 7 teachers embarked on this transformative journey, aiming not only to make a difference but also to cultivate invaluable life lessons and experiences. Media coverage by News 18, Ladakh, further amplified the VDJS Ladakh Service Project's reach, celebrating the commitment to education and service in the region.

Building Bridges through Service

The project selected two schools as focal points for its efforts. The first, Jamyang School in central Leh, serves as a cornerstone of education for 320 students, with 200 residing in its boarding facilities. Here, the student team undertook the construction of essential washroom facilities, enhancing the quality of life for residential students and supporting their educational environment.

The second school, Shachukul Middle School, nestled in Tangtse village, provides education from Classes I-VII in a challenging landscape marked by harsh climatic conditions. Recognizing the critical need for sustainable resources, the RS Team donated a year's salary for a teacher and installed solar panels, empowering the school with renewable energy solutions.

Cultural Immersion and Exploration

Beyond their service commitments, the participants delved into Ladakh's rich cultural tapestry and natural wonders. Excursions included visits to the Karu Army Exhibition, the breathtaking Changla Pass (one of the world's highest motorable passes), the serene Thiksey Monastery, Rancho School, and the historic Rezang La Pass, a poignant reminder of India's resilience during the Indo-China War of 1962. The visit to Pangong So, famed for its role in the iconic movie "3 Idiots," added a touch of cinematic charm to the journey.

Reflecting on Growth and Gratitude

The culmination of the project was marked by a poignant closing ceremony, where cultural exchanges and certificate distributions highlighted the bonds forged and the achievements celebrated. The journey back was punctuated by reflections on the profound impact of their efforts, fostering gratitude towards the host schools and the Indian Army for their invaluable support throughout.

A Testament to Holistic Growth

The VDJS Ladakh Service Project 2023 stands not only as a testament to the transformative power of service but also as a beacon of holistic growth for the participating students. Beyond the tangible contributions made to the schools and communities, the project instilled in the future leaders empathy, resilience, and a deep appreciation for diverse cultures and environments.

As they return to their respective schools enriched with experiences and memories, these students carry forward a spirit of service and a commitment to making a positive impact wherever they go. The echoes of "Dream, Dare, Deliver" continue to resonate, inspiring future generations to embrace service as a cornerstone of personal and communal growth.

ROUND SQUARE STUDENT EXCHANGE PROGRAMME:

VDJS, Hisar & Roedean School, South Africa

A Transformative Journey: Lavanya Singh's Summer at Roedean School, Johannesburg

The exchange had been something magical for me. Meeting new people, trying out new things and experiencing new cultures is something I was always passionate about, but this Round Square Student Exchange seemed, undoubtedly, daunting initially: traveling alone, managing my own belongings and being responsible for my own safety between transit from India and South Africa and of course, assimilating with the students at Roedean School. However, before I knew it, the fear melted away, and I found myself basking in the joy of this experience. Becoming historically and culturally aware of our similarities and differences was a fascinating lesson. South Africa and India are not quite so different, as both nations are products of an oppressive past, but have flourished with unity between various cultural groups and sects. Not once did I feel any different or out of place during my entire stay in Johannesburg.

My exchange with the Roedean School has taught me a lot of things. Adaptation, quick thinking, responsibility and courtesy are only some of them. My exchange partner, Umika, and I became fast friends, and the relationship is ever-growing, sharing memories of anecdotes and events of our schools. I hope to see the students of Roedean in VDJS for future exchanges and build more friendships on the way.

-Lavanya Singh

The Roedean-VDJS Student Exchange was a transformative experience for both Umika and Lavanya, who embraced and adjusted to new and unfamiliar environments, gaining invaluable lessons that extended far beyond their academic settings.

EDUCATIONAL ODYSSEY:

Umika Kanjee's Stay at Vidya Devi Jindal School, Hisar

Umika Kanjee, a Roedean student, spent a month at VDJS alongside her student exchange partner, Lavanya Singh, trying her hand at a myriad of activities and exploring India and its mesmerizing heritage under the insignia of Round Square. She got a taste of boarding life at VDJS, where she was exposed to living independently and a different curriculum than what she was originally accustomed to. She attempted various subjects at VDJS, some new to her while others familiar. Originally a student of science, she opted for the humanities to try her hand at Indian politics and history.

I was surprised by the camaraderie between VDJS' students. I am a day scholar, and such strong bonds of friendships are rare. The industrious nature of the school's staff left me speechless. I had some of my lessons with the teachers of VDJS, and I found them enriching and enlightening as they broadened my horizons beyond what lies in my worksheets and notes. I am a Science student at my school, but I got a chance to try my hand at humanities this time. I was pleasantly surprised to enjoy it more than my original set of subjects. When I visited New Delhi, and had the opportunity to roam about the night streets surrounded by Indian handicrafts and art, something large, overwhelming and happy swelled in my chest. I was proud, India is a patchwork of different cultures and traditions, and my excursion to its capital made me acutely aware of that. I shall be thankful to VDJS, and India, for all that they have given me in this one month, and I hope I get to visit this gilded country again.

-Umika Kanjee

STUDENT RS REPRESENTATIVE 2023-24

One of the most remarkable aspects of Round Square is its emphasis on experiential learning. Through a wide range of activities, whether it's trekking through the hills of Ladakh, being a student host for a project, participating in community service initiatives, or engaging in cultural exchanges with students from around the world, each experience has been a catalyst for personal growth, pushing me to broaden my horizons and expand my perspective. RS has instilled in me a deep sense of responsibility towards others and the environment. As I have learned the importance of empathy, compassion, and in making a positive impact in the world.

Tanvi Rajpuria - KING CONSTANTINE MEDAL

ANNUAL REGIONAL MEETING: INDIAN HIGH SCHOOL, DUBAI

The Principal Ms Naina Dhillon and the RS Rep. Ms Anindita Sinha attended the Annual Regional Meeting proudly hosted by The Indian High School, Dubai, uniting schools from South Asia and the Gulf Region from 17th-20th November, 2023.

Centered around the transformative Heroes of Discovery Framework, the conference provided a platform for teachers from diverse schools to showcase their innovative practices. Their presentations offered valuable insights into adaptable teaching methods and educational strategies.

The ARM proved instrumental in fostering new connections, generating fresh ideas, and aligning shared objectives towards a promising future of educational excellence and collaboration.

RSIC - 2023: Celebrating 'New Africa' in Kenya

The 54th Round Square International Conference convened in Kenya from October 8-14, 2023, drawing 2,000 delegates from 50 countries. Hosted by Brookhouse School, Nairobi, under the theme 'New Africa,' the conference symbolised optimism and transformation across the continent.

Delegates engaged in diverse activities, from service projects in local schools with delegates painting walls and interacting with students, showcasing resilience and courage to thrilling adventures and explorations of democratic principles. Grouped into Baraza teams, they collaborated closely, fostering teamwork and camaraderie. Esteemed speakers like H.E. Margaret Kenyatta and Ambassador Amina Mohamed inspired the attendees with their insights on women's health, education, and leadership.

The conference offered an overnight camping trip at Nairobi National Park, blending safaris, traditional dances, and tent-building, leading to deep insights into Kenya's wildlife and cultural heritage, enriching all attendees and leaving indelible memories. In gratitude, delegates echoed, 'Asante Brookhouse, Asante Kenya!'

RSC Sunbeam School, Lahartara 2023

Jindalites participated in the conference themed "Dream, Believe, & Achieve," hosted from 17th -21st August, 2023, at Sunbeam School, Lahartara, Varanasi. Guided by Mr. Pranab Mukerjee, the Baraza sessions focused on leadership, stressing transparent communication and accountability. The conference concluded with a vibrant celebration of India's cultural diversity, leaving delegates with cherished memories, new skills, and a broader perspective on life.

RSC Lawrence School, Sanawar 2023

Lawrence School, Sanawar, hosted delegates from June 5th- 9th , 2023, for the Round Square Conference themed "Protect, Preserve, Progress, for Sustainable Happiness." Through engaging baraza sessions, team VDJS and other delegates explored critical environmental challenges facing our planet.

Taking proactive steps, the delegation planted tree saplings on steep mountains and created bird ponds, contributing significantly to ecosystem well-being. This initiative not only deepened young minds' understanding of global issues but also emphasized sustainable development for harmonious coexistence with nature.

RSC Pathways School, Gurugram, 2024

VDJS Team played a proactive role in the conference hosted by Pathways School, Gurgaon, from 15th - 19th February, 2024, themed 'Myriad Cultures: One Beautiful World.' Delegates from 22 global schools explored globalisation, internationalism, cultural diversity, and the influence of social media in engaging Baraza sessions. The conference concluded with a profound consensus: "Embracing diverse cultures fosters global unity and conflict resolution, emphasizing the balance between openness and cultural roots."

Daly College Service Project: Panna Tiger Reserve

Daly College, Indore, organised a Panna Tiger Reserve Community Service and Wildlife Awareness Project from March 16th to 20th. The initiative aimed to promote sustainable living and enhance personal hygiene awareness in buffer villages Bagoha and Jhinna.

Students explored the serene Ken River, fostering community connections and revitalising a local school- they built not just walls, but bridges between communities. They led health camps, with their relentless efforts focusing on menstrual hygiene, and distributed essential sanitary napkins. The project culminated with a sense of fulfillment, blending leisure, service, and cultural immersion for all participants.

Learning Beyond Classroom

THE INTERNATIONAL AWARD FOR YOUNG PEOPLE (IAYP)

IAYP provides Jindalites a platform to participate in extracurricular activities and the reward is the perennial values of resilience, perseverance, physical and mental toughness and a readiness to help the neighbour.

A memorable trek to Mussoorie served as a transformative journey for Jindalites, fostering personal development, leadership, and community engagement. Nestled in the scenic hills, Mussoorie provided a unique backdrop for girls, to embark on challenges, develop skills, and contribute to the community, creating a holistic experience that shaped young trekkers into well-rounded individuals. IAYP's community service projects aim not just at building strong and self-reliant communities but also empathetic individuals who endeavour to create a better society. Engaging in such projects allows students to step outside their comfort zones, gain valuable hands-on experience, and develop essential life skills. Collaboration with NGO, Bheekh Nahi Kitaab Do, provided Jindalites the opportunity to serve their communities and volunteer at local shelters, organising charity events, or participating in environmental clean-up efforts. Girls at VDJS learn the importance of empathy, compassion, and civic responsibility.

For its relentless efforts to contribute in making the world a better place to live in, to offer a hand of empathy and compassion and also to inculcate the same in its protegees, VDJS was awarded with the 'Duke of Edinburgh's International Award' for its exemplary contribution to the community through Voluntary Service at the Annual Gold Award Ceremony held at India International Centre, New Delhi.

INDIAN NATIONAL TRUST FOR ART AND CULTURAL HERITAGE INTACH

The heritage of India has preserved itself even after hundreds of years of oppression and it has come out flourishing like none other. VDJS embraces and celebrates the culture and heritage of great students are bestowed with. An enriching workshop on Bharatnatyam by SPIC MACAY as well as the Kathak workshop by Guru Smt Vidha Lal and applauding performance at UDBHAV, International Dance and Music Fest, Scindia Kanya Vidyalaya Gwalior, brought enriching learnings to the students about Indian classical and folk dance forms.

GENERATION GLOBAL

Generation Global is an institution striving to enhance young learners' life skills and their knowledge about global issues and moulding them into globally active citizens. It offers free and flexible resources on a range of global issues and high-quality training for educators to support young people's global citizenship development. Jindalites have attended around 30 Video Conferences during the 2023-24 session, wherein open dialogue is the only mode of interaction with no room for debate. The girls get to know the ideas and practices across the globe as the attendees are generally selected from different countries and continents. The prestigious open platform has been used as a forum for exchanging views among school students on global issues like Climate Change, Rights and Inequalities, Health and Well-being, Hate Speech Online, Rights of Girls and Women, Digital wellness, Civic Participation, and many more.

GREEN SCHOOL PROGRAMME

Our habitat is our responsibility, and the well-being of Mother Earth is the responsibility of human beings. An aid for the prolonged environmental crises delayed is simply an aid denied. The authenticity of VDJS as the gosseller of the Green School Programme lies in the fact that it moves beyond pictures and textbooks and focuses solely on 'doing'. Through notable thought-provoking activities, the school has made impeccable efforts to become a contributing element in ensuring better futures and lives. The students have been actively involved in eco-friendly competitions and hands-on activities while bringing laurels to the institution. Organic farming is now as consistent on campus as the four seasons in a year.

Six prestigious schools participated in the seminar, wherein, the participants presented a research paper on the topic 'UN Sustainable Goals: Global to Local, Need of the Hour'. The virtual session brought home to the students the awareness of their own role in shaping public policy on Sustainable Goals and restoring and strengthening the environment of the Earth. COP28 Green School Awards 2023 by Green Mentors

VDJS was honoured with the COP28 Green School Award 2023 for the second consecutive year by Green Mentors, a special consultative with the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations, on 1st December at COP28, UAE, for championing the development of Green Education Spaces and fostering sustainable teaching-learning practices at school.

Plant Donation Drive by the students of Class XI- Geography

Jindalites donated the plants to the local people of Hisar to create awareness for environmental stewardship.

Organic Farming

From mulching and vermicomposting, ensuring the health of the soil, to the distribution of the vegetables from VDJS Farm to the Support Staff, all the hands came together to further the cause of a green environment and organic food for the mind and body.

MUN – YOUTH PARLIAMENT

Model United Nations provides the students with the platform to be extraordinary, to showcase their diplomatic skills and understanding of internationalism. In an era of catastrophic wars, the students are, hence, emboldened to have a more practical approach to the predicaments revolving around the world. The rigorous research sessions, multiple rounds of discussion and the unceasing corroborations of the educators as guides at VDJS'MUN Club have brought accolades and glory with the performance of Jindalites in prestigious Model UN conferences like WELMUN and MU20, where they lay out their pragmatic perspectives to the challenges that envelope the world today. It was all a result of the. Following the motto, 'The sky's the limit', Jindalites keep their spirits lifted and are determined to outmanoeuvre their contenders.

WELMUN

VDJS participated in the prestigious Welham Boys' MUN, 'WELMUN' and left the stamp of intelligence and diligence, winning recognition and accolades. Vaishnavi Yadav of Class IX earned a 'Verbal Mention' in the International Press Committee and got her article, 'China', published in the Newsletter of the International Press.

MU-20 MUN CHALLENGE

At MU-20, Asia's largest high school conference, hosted by the Emerald Heights International School, Indore, the students of VDJS carved their mark and earned various accolades, illuminating our school from the rest. Lavanya Singh of Class XI won the 'Best Researcher' of her committee UNESCO in the event and Lavanya Choudhary, Class IX, was given the honour of 'Best Stakeholder' for her exemplary skills in the 'Impact Challenge'. Jindalites in the Theatrics Challenge - Mannat Gill, Paridhi Kothriwal, Ishanee Mehta, Madhurjot and Aahana Miharia- were awarded with the 'Best Performing Team' in Communication through Body.

NCC

Thundering parades and an eagerness to serve is what describes an NCC Cadet. It provides opportunities to the girls to chisel out their persona with a sense of duty, commitment, dedication and moral values which shape them into able leaders and efficient citizens. They attain the skills of warcraft and receive theoretical training not only through their classes but also through the various Annual Training Camps held for the cadets at Hansi, and Rupnagar, Punjab this year. Their commitment to do 'what is right and just' is reflected in the activities like tree plantations, raising their voices against wrongdoings through observing the Vigilance Awareness Week and many more. The cadets were felicitated for their rigorous and forbearing service in a special NCC Assembly. It is the finest organisation for the preparation of the Indian youth, their determination and tireless efforts resulting in the growth of the nation.

Charvi Aggarwal(Batch 2022) was awarded with ADG commendation on 30th Jan,2024 for working in Podcast as a content writer to cover RDC through social media platform.

SOCIAL SERVICE LEAGUE

“We make a living by what we get, but we make a life by what we give...” with a belief in these simple and yet very thoughtful words, Jindalites, with all their sincerity, participate in community Social Service League activities organised by VDJS. The school aims to imbibe in its students a strong sense of personal, social and environmental responsibility. The girls extended a gesture of compassion to one of the most neglected sections of the community, the underprivileged and the elderly. Visits to the Old Age Home and skill development workshops with the children from lower strata of society for arming them for sustainable earning and living and donation of books to the NGO, Bheekh Nahin Kitab Do, have been organised with the utmost passion and concern and with a hope for a better tomorrow for all.

SPECIAL ASSEMBLIES

The assemblies conducted at VDJS help shape the school culture, fostering a sense of community, and providing opportunities to learn and grow. By engaging in and addressing various attributes and facets of life throughout the year, Jindalites get firsthand insights on global topics, daily issues and concerns, and campus life. The weekly Student Council's assembly, 'campus-concerns' reflects upon the various issues arising within the school community. Special Assemblies are held on Army Day, Nutrition Day, Heritage Day, World Cancer Day, and many more are conducted wherein, the doyens and luminaries are invited to share their insights with the students to bring home the true significance of the causes promoted at the national and the international level and how they impact the students at the individual level. Surely, the assemblies at VDJS are a platform of education and awareness and hence remain to be the hallmark of a Jindalite's routine.

HOBBIES & CLUBS

At VDJS, anticipation for Saturdays runs high, it is more than just a break from schoolwork or receiving laptops, it's about the one hour that Jindalites readily engross themselves wholeheartedly in their chosen activities. Whether it is strumming guitars, working out in the gym, crafting poetry, or analysing and appreciating famous movies in Movie Review Club, every student yearns for the time to stand still, allowing their dedication to flourish. Furthermore, it's not just the children who relish this time, but the teachers as well. They eagerly indulge themselves in their respective hobbies and clubs while exploring global issues through Generation Global, learning about financial marketing, demonstrating to serve a smash or teaching the art of embroidery on different fabrics.

ROCKSPORT ADVENTURE CAMP

The electrifying Adventure Camp pushed Jindalites to their limits with a thrilling array of activities. Organised in collaboration with the Rocksports Team, the camp featured adrenaline-pumping experiences such as Wall Climbing, the Burma Bridge, the Commando Crawl, the Commando Net, and ladder climbing. To ensure the seamless ongoing of the camp, the girls were divided into groups adorned with grand titles like Ghost Riders, Avengers, Black Panthers, and Tigers. The Rocksports Team infused the amateur explorers with enthusiasm through unconventional claps and uplifting songs and slogans. The timeless favourites of Wall Climbing and Zip Lining echoed with the joyful shouts of Jindalites. They were also trained for the rigorous conditions including training in knotting and tent building. Exhausted energy was promptly restored through a jam session and a movie in the auditorium, complemented with tantalizing snacks- popcorn and coffee.

INTER-HOUSE COMPETITIONS

The grand finale of creativity, talent, and pure chaos! Inter-House activities are a critical piece of the puzzle of a Jindalite's schedule. Where there's a whirlwind of music, art, dance, acting, and a TON of competitive, however, harmless rivalry. But beyond that rivalry, there's a spirit of unity and camaraderie that shines through. As students cheer for their houses and celebrate each other's talents, friendships are forged and memories are made that will last a lifetime. So, whether you're painting masterpieces, busting moves, or stealing scenes, one thing is for certain: Inter-House activities offer a friendly platform to the students where they display their newly discovered talent or even a potential that had remained dormant and had been shaken out of lull to explore new horizons of opportunities.

INTER-SCHOOL COMPETITIONS & BEYOND

VDJS provides its pupils with numerous opportunities to step out of VDJS and compete in their respective spheres of talent. From dance, debate, and drama to visual arts, quizzing and knowledge conclaves, the students are given a wide range of exposure to all kinds of inter-school competitions and beyond. Of course, they never fail to make the school proud and the result of their grinding practices and never-ceasing efforts is reflected clearly in the laurels and awards that they bring back with them. The session 2023-24 has been no different. Be it the IPSC Art Fest, theatrics in MU20 Summit, JAF, IPSC Dance Fest or Science Drama Competition, the students of VDJS have secured various awards and recognitions, making the school immensely proud.

A proud moment for the VDJS community as the teachers' response to the questionnaire on students' and the nation's welfare shared during the programme has been acknowledged by him and the staff, Ms Suman Arora, has received a 'Certificate of Appreciation' for the same. Heartiest Congratulations!

ANNUAL EXCURSIONS

Mashobra

Amidst the hustle and bustle of academic life, students from Classes IX-XI of Jindalites embarked on an exhilarating excursion to Shimla, spanning from the 19th to the 23rd of March. Nestled amidst the serene beauty of Mashobra, the three-day camp offered a welcome respite from the busy schedule. In the breathtaking landscapes and bone-chilling winds, the Jindalites found themselves captivated by the rich heritage displayed in the paintings adorning the walls of Chail Palace. Their encounter with the vibrant tragopans, graceful deer, and other wildlife at Kufri Zoo left them spellbound. Overcoming their inhibitions, the girls enthusiastically participated in galvanic activities like rappelling, valley crossing, ziplining, and obstacle courses, experiencing a sense of empowerment with each challenge conquered. Evenings were filled with the warmth of camaraderie, as they gathered around bonfires for storytelling and jam sessions, easing the fatigue of the day's adventures. Indulging in local delicacies like pakoras and Maggi, they replenished their energy for the next day's escapades. A stroll along Mall Road not only showcased their bargaining skills but also provided a glimpse into their financial acumen. As they bid farewell to the Queen of Hills, the trip to Shimla was an amalgamation of new learnings about life, blending education with adventure, courage, friendship, and a deep appreciation for the wonders of Mother Nature.

Nainital

Students from Classes VI-VIII headed for an enlightening journey to Nainital, to conclude their session from March 19- 23. Bewitched by the pristine beauty of Nainital, also known as the Lake City of India, the students were immersed in a three-day adventure at Jim Corbett National Park, where they explored ancient temples like Hanuman Dham and Garjia, delved into the cultural richness of Dhangarhi Museum, and embarked on thrilling Jeep Safaris to encounter wildlife. The serenity of the Kosi riverbanks and the spiritual aura of Naina Devi Temple nurtured the spiritual and celestial connection with Mother Nature. The scenic wonders of Bhalugad Waterfall, Chauli ki Jaali, and Mahadev Temple at Mukteshwer, coupled with a mesmerising lake tour to Sattal, Bhimtal Lake, and Naukichiatal, instilled a deep sense of responsibility towards nature conservation and India's rich heritage. The trip thrived on delicious cuisine, soulful music, and camaraderie, and the excursion not only renewed appreciation for the natural world but also inspired the students to champion sustainable tourism practices, ensuring the preservation of Mother Nature's beauty for future generations.

BOOK FAIR

The library is the door to new ideas, discoveries, and understandings. Book Fairs are organised every year in VDJS to introduce Jindalites to the exotic realms of thoughts, ideas and the fictional world sharing a commonality with the real one. If one finds the campus brimming with students bouncing off the walls and conversing about books, it's the Book Fair saga they are bewitched by. The session of 2023-24 witnessed two Book Fairs held in collaboration with the renowned Publishing House, Scholars India, that added to the contentedness of bibliophiles. There was a heterogeneity of books from academically beneficial books to autobiographies of popular personalities and then, storybooks, junior fiction, and motivational guides. With the glimpse of the dazzling books on the shelves, Jindalites could not resist acquiring the ones they desired to read. Both the book fairs were unfalteringly congenial experiences.

FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME

Striving for and conserving a culture of teaching excellence is an integral part of the school's curriculum. Multiple workshops were attended by the VDJ's staff to upgrade their skills not only to further the cause of students' holistic development but also for their own continual personal and professional growth. Numerous workshops on the development of varied competencies and life skills in students with the effective implementation of NEP and focus on competency-oriented teaching, learning, and assessment were attended by the staff. In-house and outsourced workshops on EPF, POCSO, POSH, 'new Income-Tax regime' 'naturopathy', 'art therapies', 'self-defence', and sessions by BK Sisters were organised for the staff to ensure their plenary growth.

STUDENTS' WELLBEING

Academic achievement is just one facet of a Jindalite's development. Girls' growth is also supported through a focus on emotional stability, social connectivity, and readiness to tackle challenges. Sessions on personal grooming, self-defence, time management, and emotional regulation are what makes the school curriculum unique and holistic. At VDJS, regular health evaluations and exceptional medical care for students in the infirmary are of paramount importance. Additionally, numerous meditation workshops are offered to help students connect with their inner selves.

STAFF GET TOGETHERS

The joy of being a part of conversations about food, festivals, and bonding on special days never fades, when it is about VDJS staff. Whether it is 'Women's Day', 'Men's Day', farewells or special lunches, such occasions initiate new relations and bring forth new insights about their colleagues. The get-togethers abound in surprises, the quietest one in the gathering would spring out to render a melodious song, or the most stoic and austere in appearance would woo the gathering with his or her stand-up comedy, and such instances are countless...

CAREER GUIDANCE PROGRAMME

Choosing a career path in Class XII is indeed challenging. With the advancement of different industries and job roles to select from, a dilemma is unavoidable when picking a career. To ensure that the girls make the right choice of streams and courses, and reach new heights of accomplishments, VDJS has a long-standing collaboration with Univariety, which has conducted several workshops, webinars, and International Career fairs over the year.

The school is now also tied up with the Mindler Portal to facilitate the career-decision process for the students. One-on-one counselling sessions for the students for the selection of streams and shortlisting of colleges, and various campus visits to reputed universities like Ashoka and OP Jindal University were also conducted to experience the ethos and work culture of universities they are aspiring to enroll.

Celebrations

SAVITRI HOUSE NITE

As the Sun dipped below the horizon, the awaited but vibrant Savitrians cast a purple gleam over the stage with their lively performances. With adrenaline rushing through their veins, they showcased their talents through the electrifying fashion show and grooving water dance. The girls presented the rich hereditament of India through the classical and semiclassical fire dance. As the evening was nearing its end and the final notes of music came to stillness, a feeling of nostalgia gushed through the crowd as everyone was reminded of their fond childhood memories through the cartoon dance. The grandeur in the ambience was a testimony of hard work as Savitrians burned the midnight oil that led to this dynamic show!

SAROJINI HOUSE NITE

The Sarojinites never cease to surprise everyone by surpassing all possible limits with their outstanding performances and this year was no different. The audience filled the hall with cheers and hoots as the auditorium was brought to life by the nightingales of Sarojini House. Even the non-millennials were left in awe of the charm that the 90s held as Sarojinites performed a Retro Dance. The Baby Shark performance symbolised nostalgia, childlike innocence and an adamant refusal to grow up. In all, the evening was filled with performances worthy of every exaggeration!

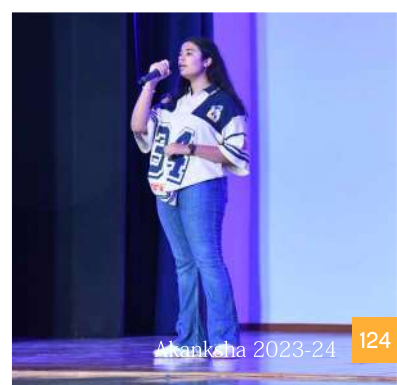

LAXMIBAI HOUSE NITE

Passion flowed along with their blood as the Laxmibians kicked off their long-anticipated Housenite with a host of cheerleaders hailing their high spirits. It was followed by captivating myriads of performances like the traditional Nepali dance and western dance. They showcased their dynamic talents in an energetic mashup of Bhangra and Bollywood dance. The nightingale of the house sent the audience into a euphonious reverie. The House Report and Awards threw the limelight on the meritorious. The spectacle concluded with Behind the Scenes which portrayed their backbreaking work.

KASTURBA HOUSE NITE

Who said the year isn't gonna be sunflowers for Kasturbians? Well, with full delight they proved them all wrong. They commenced the Housenite with their iconic Ganesh Vandana, followed by some ingenious music performances, which made the audience groove with their beats. But that wasn't enough for the Kasturbians as they made the audience go from 'aww' to 'Is that even legal?' with their back-to-back hip-pop dances and fashion show. A hint of pride and house spirit was seen in every Kasturbian's eyes.

FRESHERS' NITE

The air buzzed with energy, echoing laughter and chatter while bright lights illuminated the stage, setting the scene for an unforgettable evening of talent showcases, dance performances, and camaraderie. Vidya Devi Jindal School welcomed the newcomers to make a mark and make memories that will last a lifetime. The theme 'Arabian Nights' was depicted with a kaleidoscope of serene dances, power-packed Bhangra, mellifluous music, amateur models and the awe-inspiring 'Arabian Nights Musical' which left everyone spellbound. As the night unfolded, amidst applause and cheers, the spirit of unity and belonging enveloped the hall, marking the beginning of an exciting journey ahead.

INDEPENDENCE DAY

Independence is a lifelong celebration- every Independence Day instils a spirit of camaraderie and patriotism in all the citizens. The 77th Independence Day was celebrated with grandeur in the school with various performances by the students. The Jindalites assembled in the track field and the event started with everyone singing the national anthem in unison. This was followed by the steeple race, a beautiful musical performance and a patriotic dance by the students. The celebration was aptly concluded with the address of the Principal, Ms Naina Dhillon, wherein she shared how individual effort and initiative make a difference in the nation's growth towards greater success.

JANMASHTAMI CELEBRATION

The birth of the divine, Lord Krishna, was commemorated at VDJS with utmost enthusiasm. The floral decoration in the auditorium lit up the spirits of the traditionally dressed Jindalites. The celebration commenced with melodious bhajan followed by an entrancing Krishna Leela. The celestial performances of the Inter-House Classical Dance Competition further added grandeur to the festive mood. The school fraternity performed the Janmashtami pooja with reverence and prayed for the welfare of all.

TEACHERS' DAY

Teachers' Day was celebrated at Vidya Devi Jindal School with great ecstasy and delight and was a tribute to our benevolent teachers for every effort they have made for us. The celebration, organised by Class XII, began as our teachers stepped into the auditorium and made heads turn to their versatile 'Shades of Pink' attires, which was the theme for the occasion and rocked in the pink and black Westerns. In the twinkling of an eye, the entire auditorium was filled with swirls of laughter and joy, and the numerous performances by the students including dance, singing, and stand-ups awed the audience. The celebration brimmed with the emotion of gratitude that the pupils had for the teachers as everyone left the auditorium with hearts filled with immense love and lifelong memories.

GANDHI JAYANTI

“In a gentle way, you can shake the world “

In remembrance of the man who knew how to really win, Vidya Devi Jindal School celebrated Gandhi Jayanti with great vigour. To revere the occasion, the Sports Department organised the annual event, Cross Country, in which Jindalites participated in categories according to their age and class. This year special arrangements for the Support Staff to play different types of games were made. The winners were felicitated with medals and certificates. Jindalites, once again, reiterated their commitment to practise Gandhian values. To mark the day, the Principal, Ms Naina Dhillon, announced the leaders of the future, the Vice-Prefects for the academic session 2023-24.

DUSSEHRA

As dawn broke on the day of the religious festival, there was an electrifying energy in the air, charged with reverence and devotion. Jindalites celebrated the heartwarming festival, symbolising the victory of good over evil, clad in gaily Indian ethnics with great fervour and ebullient energy. Keeping the tradition going, students presented a stellar performance of Ram Leela, showcasing Lord Rama's legendary triumph over the demon king Ravana. The gentle aroma of the special dinner's delicacies mingled with the high-spirited effigy burning of Ravana, created a sensory symphony that overwhelmed Jindalites' with pride in their culture.

FAREWELL

After days of rehearsals, budgets, planning, countdowns and decorations, the anticipation, the wait and the curiosity finally ended as grade XI delivered the magical evening that had been promised. With the theme being 'Masquerade', of course, a ball dance performance was due and was executed as close to perfection as it could get. Performances like Western dance, singing, the traditional bhangra and a Bollywood mix were not any less extraordinary either.

The games elicited many confessions out of Class XII and the Miss VDJS Pageant definitely stood out as the highlight of the evening. The event culminated with a jam session that was eagerly awaited. There could not have been a better finale to sum up the horde of memories, learnings and friendships that the batch of 'Mavericks' has made in the school.

REPUBLIC DAY

The establishment of 'The Living Document' was first celebrated on 26th January 1950. Every Indian with their scintillating eyes conveyed unity, pride, strength and unwavering love for their country. At VDJS, Republic Day was commemorated by the Principal, Ms Naina Dhillon, hoisting the national flag, followed by the Saraswati Vandana and an address by the Vice-Head Girl, Lavanya Singh. The school auditorium echoed with the melodies of Indian verses performed by Jindalites, filling us with a profound sense of love for our country's rich heritage.

CHILDREN'S DAY

The VDJS' staff spared no effort in putting together a wondrous evening, organised as a post-celebration of Children's Day. An air of excitement had been cast over the campus as word spread on the street about the stolen glimpses of the sneaky rehearsals. The Principal, Ms Naina Dhillon, unveiled the show dressed in the Jindalites' run-of-the-mill attire. The teachers performed sweet and nostalgic songs cloaked in their childhood-self. The Sports Department enraptured the audience with their sensational moves, followed by another zestful dance sketching the bustling routine of the Jindalites. The audience cracked up when the Administrative Staff put up a hilarious drama on a class of bizarre students. The stage was no less than a modelling runway when the staff took over with their ravishing outfits crowned with bold attitudes. The dazzling evening rounded off with the Principal acknowledging the students to be an endless inspiration.

VDJS CARNIVAL

The Winter Carnival unfolded on a freezing morning that was soon warmed up by the warmth of torrential excitement of the Jindalites, evoking a feeling of merriment around the campus. Inaugurated by the Principal, Ms Naina Dhillon, the event dazzled with a myriad of stalls, both in-house and outsourced, which drew the alumni and the staff with their families. Culinary delights like pizzas, momos and chaats enticed the taste buds while the vibgyor of games and rides rocked the day. Shopping opportunities and photo booths added to the gaiety accompanied by music and dance. Coming to the end with a thrilling Lucky Draw, where prizes like iPads, bicycles and speakers awaited, the Carnival left an unwavering mark of joy in the hearts of the Jindalites.

BASANT PANCHAMI

It's the day to revere Goddess of music, art, wisdom and learning, Maa Saraswati. In her honour, Jindalites of Classes X & XII gathered in the Foyer area of the Academic Block on the auspicious occasion of Basant Panchami. Vedic mantras were chanted. The students along with the Principal offered marigold flowers to Maa Saraswati, seeking blessings for a successful and prosperous life ahead.

BIRTH ANNIVERSARY OF LATE VIDYA DEVI JINDAL Ji

A 'havan puja' was performed at VDJS to commemorate the birth anniversary of our Patron, the Late Smt Vidya Devi Jindal Ji. The staff and students along with the Principal, Ms Naina Dhillon, assembled on the front lawn and participated in the divine endeavour with reverence to seek blessings and guidance. The school resonated with the prayers recited by the Jindalites. The girls expressed gratitude to Smt Vidya Devi Ji for blessing students with an arbour of holistic growth.

NEW INITIATIVES

BSAI

The Boarding Schools Association of India is the pioneer Indian Association that serves, represents and promotes the interests of purely residential, private, unaided boarding schools in India. VDJS is now honoured to be a member of the prestigious organization, popularly known as BSAI, which was established in 2020. Its primary objectives are to serve the staff and students of member boarding schools through professional training, providing a forum for all member schools to increase interaction and cooperation amongst each other along all facets of the boarding experience, leading the discussion on well-being and all-round development of boarding students, and advancing and supporting best practices in pedagogy. A three-day BSAI conference was attended by the Principal, Ms Naina Dhillon, and a few staff members where the Heads of renowned Boarding Schools and the Core Committee of BSAI spearheaded a series of extensive workshops on profound topics like- the role of a teacher in a boarding school, communication and conflict resolution, leadership skills, team building, and the role of a tutor to emphasise and bring home to the educators the identification and significance of the best practices in residential schools.

INFRASTRUCTURAL DEVELOPMENT

The students' well-being is profoundly affected by their physical environment and VDJS consistently prioritises the optimisation of its physical environment to foster optimal learning conditions for students. Each year, the school undertakes initiatives aimed at cultivating a serene, secure, and expansive ambiance, equipped with top-notch amenities and utilities, all within an aesthetically pleasing setting. Through meticulous planning, the school creatively transforms conventional structures into eco-conscious buildings, ensuring a sustainable and conducive learning environment for its community. Various important improvements to the sports and recreational facilities have been introduced, which include the installation of floodlights in the hockey ground that would facilitate prolonged training hours and late evening sessions thus allowing players to refine their skills at any hour of the day.

Installation of flood lights in the hockey ground

Adventure obstacle course installed in the track-field

Wall constructed for football shooting practices

Furthermore, a special wall for shooting exclusively for football coaching has come up that creates an organised environment where players practice how to score goals. Further more the establishment has a recording room for capturing all types of functions and music competitions thereby promoting creativity and talents among individuals in the society. Lastly, one military-grade obstacle course is now available beside the athletic ground hence offering variety of entertainment alternatives and encouraging physical fitness among pupils. All these measures ultimately improve our school's ambience while also supporting its general development as well as healthiness.

JOURNEY

Beneath the dark, there is Always some light;
In some hope to fight,
You will fall, and
You have to get
Up with grace —
That's how you know
You are part of the race.
Life is cold like
Mixture of water
And peppermint —
All you have to
Do is experiment.
Be courageous, Be mighty;
Be intelligent, Be loving.
Be your own definition,
And the journey will be more
Beautiful than the destination.
Your past is the reason
You are standing for your future.
This is how life works
In a world full of creatures.
Some thoughts are the
The root of sorrow, indeed;
Give it up, and
Live in peace.

THE BEAUTIFUL GIFTS GOD GIFTED US

I see the sunshine,
And yearn to make it all mine.
I hear the fruitful chirping of birds,
And ponder on their words.
I see the white jumbled clouds,
And wonder if they too doubt aloud.
How lovely is that shining star,
Guiding me from afar.
I marvel at the leaves' duty,
Nourishing the plant with such beauty.
The old mango trees sway,
Their leaves dance in the day.
The bush is full of rose flowers,
Their thorns wield power.
The diversity - blue, pink, yellow, and red,
In the garden, they're perfectly spread.
No flaw to detect, not a single defect,
In nature's perfection, we reflect.

THAT NIGHT

Once at night,
I felt someone hold me tight.
I opened my eyes wide,
To see who was by my side.
But the room was pitch dark,
No sign of any mark.
I reached for the light,
Yet all remained out of sight.
Fear made me sweat,
No sound to hear, no one to get.
It felt like a nightmare,
With nobody there to care.
Once more I sought the light,
This time illuminating the night.
To my surprise, I found my brother,
Embracing me like no other.

I AM A WOMAN

God made me a woman:
An object in the eyes of lecherous men,
Less deserving of rights and respect,
The cretinous half of humanity.
God made me a woman:
The quieter of the two,
The 'weaker', 'helpless' bunch,
Like sheep before the slaughter.
God made me a woman:
With shackles around my neck and letters lining my feet,
Forced to grow up before my time,
I am barely fifteen yet I feel archaic.
God made me a woman:
With broken expectations and dreams,
The one who decided to write her wretched pain,
The one who turned her misery into her muse.
God made me a woman:
Driven by primordial rage,
The one who didn't conform,
The one to remain standing before the rubble of patriarchy.
God made me a woman:
With fire in her veins,
With power on her tongue,
With enlightenment in her hands.
God made me a woman:
And so, I shall become one,
That they dare not forget.
For I'll remind the world,
That God is a woman.

HAND THAT ONCE PULLED HER HEART

She was lost,
False promises and fake smiles all around,
Who to trust?
Who to fall for?
Ohh! Her heart drenched, eyes wet,
Hands shivered all alone,
Her soul cried but none heard a sound.
Knocked on all doors,
Kept waiting until the clock's tick was heard,
She shouted for help,
But her words were kept unheard.
Tired from this worldly race,
Now she has decided her fate,
To bury in darkness her face,
And to finally break her wait.
But then,
There came a hand,
Caressing her face,
Wiping out droplets from her cheeks,
Bringing back the magic with his wand.
So was the wait to end?
Was it time for lights to come?
Would her words be heard?
Uhh, why won't someone answer yet?
The voice,
The hand to hold hers,
Shoulders to support her,
And that smile to calm her,
Had finally come,
To end all sorrows and fill them with rejoice.
That hand to pull her hand,
Was known just to her.
And that magic wand,
Brought her this far.

PROMISE TO MY MOTHER EARTH

Oh! Our precious beloved Mother Earth,
You built us up and made us strong from birth.
You were the one who gave us birth,
But our race has done nothing but wrong.
You held us up in our desperate times,
Yet to repay you, we caused famines and crimes.
You endured all the pain, no gain,
Yet your oceans were still drained.
It's our fault your forests have been burned,
But alas! We've yet to learn.
I can feel your wind in my hair,
As I sit outside without a care.
Suddenly, guilt floods my heart,
You give us pleasure, yet we tear you apart.
With every building we raise,
We steal from you, in countless ways.
From mere dirt, you shaped us with girth,
Endowing us with strength and worth.
As I gaze at the stars in the night,
I know what's true, what's right.
Through love, we must fight,
To save your forests from endless blight.
Oh, Mother Earth,
You've showered us with love since birth,
Like a dove, you've helped us fly above.
In your arms, we've found solace and mirth,
Yet we've destroyed your fertile farms.
I now vow to protect you,
For I know what's true and what we must do.

SOMEBODY

We all need that somebody,
But what if there's nobody;
To hold on tight
When there's a fight.
The day bleeds,
And she just wants to flee;
Into somebody's arms
But there are nobody's arms.
The pain of loneliness could not be numbed,
And she was stunned.
Is there nobody
To be her somebody?
Somebody to hear her,
When she was lost in the wild.
But now lost is the child,
Who had friends for life.
Those friends who hugged her tight,
In the night,
The ones who kept her warm;
The ones who kept her strong.
All was lost,
Her future went for a toss.
Locked inside,
With nobody on her side.
Only if she could stop it all,
And not just fall.
Only if she could,
Then she would.
Now the night has fallen,
And her beauty is stolen;
By the monster
Of the lonesome.
Now her only buddy
Is her study
About loneliness
And somebody.

A STORY OF A WOMAN WHO WISHED OTHERWISE

The door banged, blurred my sight, I was in a haze,
And the next thing I know is being dragged,
Dragged to the unknown,
Oh no, I didn't know a soul.
For how was I, and people like me, supposed to know the noxious,
How was I now responsible for my belongings?
I cannot be, no no mother, I am so naive,
Save me from this unknown.
A few years have passed, now I am blind, deaf, and defeated,
Impression of a corpse stands no good.
Glanced at the youth, mocking me, laughing at me,
What have you done to her, where is she...
Who is she? Oh, she's just a woman.

SKY VIEW

When I look up in the night sky,
I see all my dreams fly high.
Knowing them to be my life, because without
Them I cannot survive.
Life is like a puzzle game, you have a
Picture in your mind.
But when few pieces deny, they make your picture die.
The picture cannot be made again if it's not
Your heart's desire again.
And also be ready to feel the pain, as there are
Chances of drought before the rain.
Will the spaceship reach the place with one imagined,
Or
Leave few broken pieces behind-
Without whom you cannot be refined.

THE MARE OF MANY TRIES

As she roamed across the land
Beneath the starry skies,
As the moonlight struck her eyes,
As she galloped by.
As she thundered across the fields,
And as she stumbled by,
As she ate the year's yield,
With a brightness in her eyes.
As her rider pulled her up,
She bucked and reared and cried,
But unable to get her rider off,
She finally reared her try.
To the stables back she went,
With a last defiant try,
As she whined and pinned and cried,
For a family she left by.
But as her speed,
Decreased with seeds,
And as she ceased to cry,
Her rider finally saw some sense,
And finally left her wild.

MY RELATIONSHIPS

My parents care a lot for me,
And for me they are always free.
My father does a lot of work,
And he never shirks.
My mother is lovely,
And I am her priority.
She has a lot of time for me,
And is always there for me.
They feel free,
To share everything with me,
But I am shy,
But when they ask I don't deny.
My sister and I always have a fight,
And it could be very might.
In my school if anyone hurts me,
She is the first person to fight for me.
My relationship with my family is very special,
And this is my only treasure.

THE SPECIAL BOND

I feel free,
When you're there beside me.
You're the reason I laugh,
You're a part of me, my better half.
You raise my hopes and make me robust,
Every time my dreams turn to dust.
You pulled me out of the shadows,
Filled my heart that was hollow.
Our memories I'll treasure day by day,
I'll remember you when life feels gray.
I hope we'll be together till the afterlife,
'Cause the pain of losing you would be sharper than a knife.
But I feel the fates have something else in mind,
We won't be torn apart till the end of time.
Our friendship is one of a kind,
No power can erase you from my mind.
'Cause you are that someone who gets me like no one else,
You are someone I can trust more than myself.

A MEMORY I'LL ALWAYS COME BACK TO

I still have the memories
Of the days we spent together,
The little naive girl
Unaware of how life works,
Holding onto her grandma's finger
Listening to the legends with her transient little ears
And enjoying every day she spent with her.
As the days went by,
The girl was not little anymore.
She grew older,
And so did her grandma,
The only difference was that,
Her grandma remained the same,

But the girl's growth came with changes.
Unwanted changes she did not know of,
The pretty old stories
Now became boring for her,
But something she did not know
Was what she was missing out on
And what their future held
And she continued walking without her grandma's support.
Now the girl looks for her,
As a lost traveler seeking pole star,
But unaware that,
The clouds have now covered the sky
And the rain is never coming
Owing to the inevitable truth of life.

But she still believes
That just like the moon
On a late winter night,
She'll see her shine
After the cold foggy time
In the star-studded sky
All only that will make her smile
For the rest of her life.

मेरी अध्यापिका

मेरी अध्यापिका, मेरी प्यारी अध्यापिका,
हैं वह चाँद-तारों से भी ज़्यादा अनमोला।
फूलों जैसी खिली-खिली वह रहती,
हमको बड़े मीठे लगते उनके बोले।

मेरी अध्यापिका, मेरी प्यारी अध्यापिका,
उजाला कर देती है हमारे जीवन में।
हमारे साथ पढ़ती और खेलती,
सबके लिए प्यार है उनके मन में।

मेरी अध्यापिका, मेरी प्यारी अध्यापिका,
टिम-टिमाती हैं सितारों की तरह।
कहने को तो वह अध्यापिका हैं,
पर लगती हैं हमको माँ की तरह।

किताबें

किताबों की इज्जत करना सीखो,
वही तुम्हें ज्ञान देते हैं।
अगर तुम इज्जत नहीं करोगे,
तो तुम ही अज्ञानी बनोगे।
कुछ बच्चे किताबों के लिए रोते हैं,
पर उनके पास पैसे नहीं होते हैं।
माता-पिता के अरमान होते बड़े,
पर कुछ होते पढ़ाई के खिलाफ़ खड़े।
कुछ लोगों की होती है सोच ही छोटी,
पढ़ाई के लिए करते पैसे बर्बाद नहीं।

पर जिनको पढ़ने का मौक़ा मिलता है,
वे किताबों की करते इज्जत नहीं।
माँ सरस्वती तभी ज्ञान हमें देंगी,
जब किताबों का सम्मान करेंगे हम।

समय का खेल

समय-समय का खेल है साहब
कब कौन अच्छा, कब कौन बुरा बन जाए?
दोस्त तो खूब बनते साहब,
पता नहीं कब, कौन धोखेबाज़ बन जाए?
छोटे में दोस्ती की कसमें खाते,
बड़े होकर पता नहीं क्यों बदल जाते हैं?
माता-पिता से झूठ बोलकर साथ देते,
बिना गलती शिक्षक से मार खाते,
पर बिना सोचे ऐसे दोस्त को छोड़कर,
किसी और से क्यों दोस्ती कर लेते हैं?
क्यों प्यारा सा रिश्ता वे तोड़कर,
दूसरों से नाता जोड़ लेते हैं?
अपने दोस्त की क्रीमत को समझो,
उसका साथ कभी मत छोड़ो।

मेरे सपने

जब मैंने देखा आसमान में,
लगा कि सारे सपने उड़ गए।
ज़िंदगी कुछ नहीं सपनों के बिना,
बिना सपनों के जी सकते नहीं।
ज़िंदगी एक उलझा हुआ खेल है,
पर एक खूबसूरत तस्वीर भी है।
जब कुछ टुकड़े बिखर जाते हैं,
तो सपनों को जोड़ना मुश्किल होता है।
पर मैं अपने सपनों को सजाऊँगी,
उन्हें कभी भी बिखरने नहीं दूँगी।
अब हर दिन नया सपना बुनूँगी,
नया-सा कुछ काम मैं चुनूँगी।
करूँगी सभी सपनों को मैं भी पूरा,
कुछ भी नहीं रहेगा आधा-अधूरा।

ऊँचा उठने का मन करे।
काश! मेरे भी पंख होते,

आकाश में ऊँचा उड़ने की खुशी,

माँ

आपको देख कर खुश होना,
आपके बिना उदास हो जाना,
आपके साथ सब अच्छा लगता,
यही है हमारा अनमोल रिश्ता।
हर रोज़ मुझे खाना खिलाना,
पढ़ाना-लिखाना, सब सिखाना,
सारी बातें अब याद आती है माँ।
जब पढ़कर थक जाती थी,
तब आप पढ़ाई को खेल बनाती थी।
जब भी मैं घर पर रोती थी,
आप हमेशा मेरे पास होती थी।
हर मुसीबत से मुझे बचाती थी,
मेरे लिए बेवज़ह आप हँसती थी।
बिना भूख के भी कुछ खिलाती थी,
मेरे खुशी के लिए सब काम करती थी।
कोई चाह कर भी तोड़ नहीं सकता,

अनमोल रिश्ता

सच है हर बच्चे का होता है,
अपने माता-पिता से अटूट रिश्ता।
ऐसा रिश्ता जो टूट नहीं सकता,
जिनकी जगह कोई ले नहीं सकता।
माँ अपने बच्चों के सपनों के लिए,
अपने सपनों से मुँह मोड़ लेती है।
पिता अपने बच्चों की ढाल होते हैं,
उसके लिए सबसे लड़ सकते हैं।
माता-पिता का प्यार होता अनमोल,
इनके स्नेह को कोई नहीं सकता तोल।
ये बच्चों की खुशी में खुश होते हैं,
बच्चे के दुःख से टूट जाते हैं।
माता-पिता का सम्मान करने से ही,
सारे बच्चे जग में नाम कमाते हैं।

लोगों के लिए मैं सबसे अलग हूँ,
इसलिए कोई मुझे पसंद नहीं करता।
पर मुझे इससे कोई फ़र्क़ नहीं पड़ता,
मुझे खुशी है कि मैं सबसे अलग हूँ।
जो भी मेरी बुराई आज करते हैं,
एक दिन वही तालियाँ बजाएँगे।
मुँह तो बोलने के लिए ही होता है,
लिखने के लिए मुँह नहीं है।
मुझे तो मेरा लक्ष्य पता है,
दूसरों का मुझे कुछ पता नहीं।
मैं तो सफलता की सीढ़ियाँ चढ़ रही,

मैं अकेले ही खुश रह लेती हूँ,

इतनी सुंदरता है और कहाँ?
घर हो या इमारतें सब सुंदर,
शहर, गाँव, खेलते हुए बच्चे,

अबोध

लोगों की नज़रों में मैं अबोध हूँ,
क्योंकि मुझे छल-कपट का बोध नहीं।
मैं सच के मार्ग पर ही चलती हूँ,
मुझे झूठ बोलने की कला नहीं आती।
मैं सबको अपना समझ लेती हूँ,
लोगों की असलियत पहचान नहीं पाती।
सबका हृदय से सम्मान करती हूँ,
मैं सबसे आत्मीयता रखती हूँ।
हर कार्य को ईमानदारी से करती हूँ,
पर हर क्रतार में पीछे रह जाती हूँ।
मैं सबकी तरह नहीं बन सकती,
कोई मुझे मेरे जैसा भी मिलता नहीं।
अपने तरीके से हर काम करती हूँ,
कभी मेहनत से पीछे नहीं हटती।
मैं मात्र पुस्तकों तक सीमित नहीं,
शिक्षक हूँ, बचपन को सींचती हूँ।
ज्ञान का बखान करना सीखा नहीं,
यथासंभव उन्हें प्रेरित करती हूँ।
सच-झूठ के अंतर को समझाती हूँ,
अपनी शर्तों पर जीना सिखाती हूँ।
निश्छल, निष्कपट रहना जानती हूँ,
उन्हें भी ऐसे ही रहने के लिए कहती हूँ।
दिखावे के पीछे भागना निरर्थक है,
सुकर्मों से ही बनता जीवन सार्थक है।
मैं सीधे मार्ग पर ही आगे बढ़ती हूँ,
दया, प्रेम जैसे सद्भावों से भरी हूँ।
अप्रिय बातों को महत्त्व नहीं देती,
आवश्यक बातों से सरोकार रखती हूँ।
जीवन है ईश्वर का अनमोल उपहार,
जियो ऐसे कि सदा याद रखे संसार।
