Date: 1st - 2nd May 2024

Venue: India Habitat Centre, Delhi

Participants:

Mr. Kshatriya Sandeep Kumar

Ms. Pinky Kumari

Day 1:

The first day of the IAYP National Training Workshop commenced with the registration of delegates, where Mr. Kshatriya Sandeep Kumar and Ms. Pinky Kumari from Vidya Devi Jindal School actively participated. The welcome address set the tone for the workshop, emphasizing the importance of the International Award for Young People (IAYP) program.

The day's sessions covered various aspects of the IAYP framework, including sections, levels, principles, and the Gold level activities. Participants delved into the philosophy underlying the Award and embarked on understanding the Award journey through its framework.

After a refreshing tea break, the workshop continued with sessions on effective goal setting, log sheet making, and engaging in experiential learning plans. Lunch provided an opportunity for networking and exchanging ideas with fellow educators.

The afternoon sessions focused on the practical aspects of the program, such as online record book management and semi-offline activities. The day concluded with a comprehensive overview of the Award journey, ensuring that participants were well-equipped to guide students through this enriching experience.

Day 2:

On the second day, where Mr. Kshatriya Sandeep Kumar and Ms. Pinky Kumari reconvened for further discussions and practical insights into implementing the IAYP program. Delegates reported their experiences, reflecting on the previous day's learnings.

The day's agenda included sessions on mentoring, adventurous journeys, adult roles in Adventure Journey, and risk management. These sessions provided valuable guidance on facilitating outdoor activities safely and effectively.

Following a rejuvenating tea break, participants explored the residential project component of the Award and received insights into brand pack management and overall Award administration. The day concluded with a review session, highlighting the impact of the Award on young participants, and evaluating the workshop's effectiveness.

Conclusion:

Mr. Kshatriya Sandeep Kumar and Ms. Pinky Kumari from Vidya Devi Jindal School actively engaged in the IAYP National Training Workshop, gaining valuable knowledge and practical skills to enrich the Award journey for their students. They returned to their school with renewed enthusiasm and a deeper understanding of the IAYP program, ready to guide and support young participants on their journey of personal development and achievement as now both the delegates from Vidya Devi Jindal School are officially an Award Leader.

Certification:

Certificates of participation were distributed to all delegates at the closing ceremony of the workshop.
