(All questions are compulsory)

1. Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follow:

7 marks

Once, in a small town, there lived a young boy named Aarav. He loved reading books more than anything else. Every evening, he visited the local library to read new stories. One day, he found an old dusty book on the last shelf. As he turned the pages, he realised it was a diary of a traveller who had visited many countries. Aarav was fascinated and decided that one day, he too would travel the world and write his own stories. From that day on, he started noting down his dreams in a little notebook. Aarav felt that his own adventure had already begun.

From that day, he spent hours imagining the places described in the diary. The library became his favourite place to dream about adventures.
